Atlanta, Georgia

4 Days May 15-18, 2027

Day 1 – Atlanta, GA – Atlanta Botanical Gardens w/boxed lunch – Marietta, GA Lodging – Today, travel takes you to Atlanta, GA. Start with a visit to the Atlanta Botanical Gardens, the emerald jewel in the crown of Atlanta culture. Explore renowned plant collections, beautiful displays and spectacular exhibitions make the Atlanta Botanical Garden the loveliest place in the city to visit. An urban oasis in the heart of Midtown, the Garden includes 30 acres of outdoor gardens, an award-winning Children's Garden, the serene Storza Woods highlighted by a unique Canopy Walk, and the picturesque Skyline Garden. A boxed lunch will be included today with your visit. End the day in Marietta, GA for a three-night stay at a local hotel. Dinner is on your own this evening. (B,L)

Day 2 - Georgia Aquarium w/"Behind the Seas" Tour – College Football Hall of Fame – Free Time at The CTR – World of Coca-Cola – Dinner at Mary Mac's Tea Room – Fox Theatre Performance - This morning, after breakfast, start the day with a visit to the Georgia Aquarium, the largest aquarium in the world. It is home to tens of thousands of animals including 500 species from around the world and more than 60 habitats including four beluga whales. The aquarium features several exhibits that are sure to reel you in such as 4-D theater, the Penguin Waddle Walk, and the dolphin exhibit and show featuring an expansive underwater dolphin viewing window and a spectacular musical theatrical performance that highlights the emotional bond shared between dolphins and humans.

Included with your visit to the Aquarium is the "Behind the Seas" tour. Prepare to dive deep into the inner workings of the aquatic wonderland and witness the enchantment that brings the exhibits to life. Whether you're a curious marine enthusiast, an avid learner, or simply eager to explore, the "Behind the Seas" tour promises an unforgettable journey into the heart of your underwater world.

Next, visit The College Football Hall of Fame. This facility is a hall of fame and interactive attraction devoted to American college football. The National Football Foundation founded the Hall in 1951 to immortalize the players and coaches of college football that were voted first team All-American by the media.

Enjoy lunch on your own today at The CTR (formerly the CNN Center). Downtown Atlanta's newest food hall features 11 chef-driven dining concepts and one fabulous bar.

The afternoon features a tour of the World of Coca-Cola, where the famous soft drink's story is told through fascinating exhibits, classic ads and a fanciful representation of the bottling process. Taste Coca-Cola products from around the world and pick your favorite before raiding the gift shop for souvenirs.

Dinner is included this evening in Mary Mac's Tea Room. Mary Mac's has been setting the standard for Southern Cooking in Atlanta for over 60 years. Enjoy a family buffet style dinner that has remained largely the same for three generations.

Tonight, enjoy a performance at the Fox Theatre. The scheduled show is The Bodyguard. Former Secret Service agent turned bodyguard, Frank Farmer, is hired to protect superstar Rachel Marron from an unknown stalker. Each expects to be in charge – what they don't expect is to fall in love. (B, D)

Day 3 - Fernbank Museum of Natural History – Free Time in Marietta Square – Shopping at Avenue East Cobb – After breakfast, tour the Fernbank Museum of Natural History, the largest natural history museum in the Southeast. Experience a world of adventure filled with dinosaurs, live animals, cultural artifacts and hands-on science explorations. Take a walk on the wild side as you explore 75 acres of new outdoor adventures. Be sure to see a film in Fernbank's Giant Screen IMAX Theater. There is also the Nature Quest, a cutting-edge, interactive exhibit with live animal habitats and exploration of ecosystems found throughout the world.

Enjoy free time and lunch on your own at Marietta Square. The Square wraps around Glover Park, with restaurants, shops, galleries, museums, historic storefronts, and more to explore.

The afternoon features shopping at Avenue East Cobb, a unique shopping and dining experience that caters to a wide range of preferences. This open-air lifestyle center blends the convenience of retail therapy with dining options and the pleasure of outdoor ambiance, creating a perfect setting for a day of shopping. End the day with dinner at a local restaurant. (B,D)

Day 4 - Gone With The Wind Museum at Brumby Hall – Sweetwater Valley Farm Café – Depart for Home - After breakfast at the hotel, visit the Gone With The Wind Museum at Historic Brumby Hall. Built in 1851, Brumby Hall is now the home of the Marietta Gone with the Wind Museum. The museum has been a mainstay in Marietta since 2003, and move to its current location in 2018. With an extensive collection of memorabilia relating to the book and movie, you do not have to be a die-hard fan of Gone with the Wind to enjoy the vast history surrounding one of the world's most beloved books and movies. This collection features several original pieces as well as items that are extremely rare including one of the most iconic costume pieces from the movie, the mourning bonnet worn by Scarlett O'Hara, played by Vivien Leigh.

Stop for lunch on your own today at the Sweetwater Valley Farm Café in Philadelphia, TN. Enjoy delicious grilled cheese sandwiches made with cheese crafted right here on the farm, hand-dipped milkshakes, and a true farm-to-table experience. After lunch, depart for home. (B)
