"I Love Lucy" Jamestown, New York

5 Days October 11-15, 2027

Day 1 – Pittsburgh, PA – Today, travel takes you to Pittsburgh, PA where you enjoy an overnight stay at the Drury Inn. Dinner is on your own this evening.

Day 2 – Jamestown, NY – Free Time Downtown – Guided LucyTown Tour – After breakfast, travel to Jamestown, NY, the hometown of Lucille Ball. On arrival, enjoy free time for shopping and lunch on your own in downtown Jamestown. This afternoon, meet your local guide for a LucyTown Tour. See Jamestown, New York through the eyes of Lucy. You will see places of significance to Lucille Ball – the house where she was born, the house where she grew up, the cemetery where she and her family are at rest, town murals and much more, including the infamous Lucy statues.

Then check into the Chautauqua Harbor Hotel for a two-night stay. The Chautauqua Harbor Hotel is a nine-acre resort on the shores of beautiful Chautauqua Lake. The hotel was designed to evoke the spirit of the grand hotels of yesteryear while offering modern amenities. Dinner is included this evening at a local restaurant. (B,D)

Day 3 - Roger Tory Peterson Institute – Lucille Ball Desi Arnaz Museum – Lunch in the Tropicana Room – National Comedy Center – Busti Grist Mill – Following breakfast at the hotel, visit the Roger Tory Peterson Institute. Roger Tory Peterson was an American naturalist and artist famous for revolutionizing birdwatching through the creation of modern field guides. Over the course of his storied career, Roger Tory Peterson traveled the world in search of birds and other fauna and flora to paint, photograph, film and document. RTPI has been entrusted with most of his life's work.

Next, tour the Lucille Ball Desi Arnaz Museum. Inside you will find a warm salute to the "First Couple of Comedy" in Lucy's hometown. See original awards, photographs, and other personal memorabilia from the estate of Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz including Lucy's 1972 gold Mercedes Benz.

Also included with your visit to the museum is lunch in the Tropicana Room. Go back in time and experience this re-creation of Ricky Ricardo's famous Manhattan night club. In the Tropicana Club, enjoy a delicious meal while watching your favorite episode of I Love Lucy.

The afternoon includes a visit to the National Comedy Center, inspired by Lucille Ball's vision for her hometown to become a destination for the celebration of comedy. The National Comedy Center features over 50 immersive exhibits that take you on a laugh-filled, interactive journey through the world of comedy, as you explore stand-up performances, movies, TV and radio shows, cartoons, comic strips and the internet to discover the great works and iconic performers who have elevated comedy to an art form. Throughout your personalized experience, you'll gain a profound appreciation for comedy icons and innovators, as well as for the tremendous influence of humor on how we think, live and laugh

Then visit The Busti Grist Mill and see the 1839 mill in action! There are three floors to view the grinding area, display area, bolting reel, and the original 1870's turbines. You can also visit the Museum and Miller's House, which was built in the 1850's and teaches about rural life. Flour and corn meal are available for purchase. Tonight, dinner is included at a local restaurant. (B, L, D)

Day 4 - Dunkirk Lighthouse & Museum – Chautauqua Belle Lunch Cruise – Erie Maritime Museum –

Pittsburgh, PA - This morning after breakfast, travel to Lake Erie. Start with a visit to the Dunkirk Lighthouse & Museum to see an active lighthouse located at Point Gratiot and grounds. A lighthouse staff member will guide you through the lighthouse keeper's home, built in the 1800's as well as the Museums. You will also have the option to climb the spiral stairs of the lighthouse to the upper observation level.

Then enjoy a lunch cruise on Chautauqua Belle. This steamboat adventure features a BBQ lunch while you cruise down the river on one of five real-life Steamboats left in North America.

Next, visit the Erie Maritime Museum in Erie, PA, a museum dedicated to the region's maritime history, particularly the War of 1812. It's home to a replica of the US Brig Niagara, the flagship of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry during the Battle of Lake Erie. The museum also features exhibits on the Battle of Lake Erie, the USS Michigan/Wolverine, and Erie's general maritime history. Enjoy an included dinner at a local restaurant before ending the day in Pittsburgh, PA for an overnight stay at the Drury Inn. (B, L, D)

Day 5 – Depart for Home - After breakfast, depart for home. (B)
